

March 27, 2019

Patricia Smith, editor

April 3, 2019

ASCENSION LUTHERAN CHURCH

2780 Haslett Rd
1:00 p.m.

Here we are, back to what we have done now for 125 years. Enjoying good music and good friends at the same time.

We have the Drapers and all the rest who worked hard to thank for the time, phone calls, e-mails that made it possible to have that great program.

THANK YOU FROM ALL OF US.

How fortunate we are to have both great music and great friends all at once,. We will no doubt continue this for the next 125 years. Maybe some one of us will have a relative to enjoy the 200th anniversary. Wouldn't that be something!

Right now we will enjoy the April program, with the four people, we heard at the 50th program, Diedra Garlock, Gaile Griffore, Isabelle Scott, and Judy Tant, all flutists.

Evidently the flute quartet has really been practicing a lot. Now they are going to play contemporary literature for the flute quartet, all written by American composers. They will play "Chats" by Marc Berthomien, "It Takes Four to Tango" by Daniel Dorff, and "La Milonga" by Christopher Caliendo.

Following this will be the Constellation Jazz Combo, with Johnathon Gewirtz, the leader. They will play a program of "West Coast Jazz". Some of the pieces are:"Sandy Shoes" by Dave Pell, "All Blues" by Miles Davis, "Freddie Freeloader" by

Miles Davis, (We are going to like that one,) and "Walkin Shoes" by Gerry Mulligan. This sounds like a really enjoyable group to hear.

What a program!!!! Something for everyone and all a bit different from Bach and Beethoven.

The program leader is Gail Griffore, tea committee chairman is Carol Broughton, with assistants, Marilyn Elena, Dianne Klinger, Marie Lyons and Joan Wierzba.

Who knows, maybe we'll have leftovers from the big party.

STUDY CLUB

APRIL 24

2:00 p.m.

Burcham Hills

"Swinging On a Gate" is the name of this program.. Who knows what that means in music.? Not me! We will have to go to find out. While you're there you probably will find out that it's a program featuring hammered dulcimer, guitar, bass and fiddle. Some of the pieces you will hear are Scottish tunes, hymns, waltzes and some original compositions. Wow, what an afternoon!

Kim Huston and friends will be the ones doing all the work. It's worth going just to see a dulcimer, and see how it's played.

Who knows, you might want to try it and become a member of the group. That might be fun and interesting at the same time.

MAY LUNCHEON COMING UP SOONER THAN YOU THINK

May 1

Get ready to go out for lunch, and not have to make that sandwich and see what's in the refrigerator. May luncheon reservations will be in the next newsletter, so watch for it.

The auditions for the PAS scholarships offered by LMM were held last weekend. There were students in piano and strings this year. All the students were well prepared and made the whole afternoon a pleasant one.

The winners in piano were:

Jean Hull Award (grades 10-12)
Kelly Bohan, 1st place,
Oliver Gao, 2nd place

Zimmer Award grades 7-9
Mika Takahashi, 1st place
Timothy Bohan, 2nd place
Lisa Kong, honorable mention

5th/6th grades
Reina Li, 1st place
Jing-Yi Hu, 2nd place
Sophia Liu, honorable mention

The winners in strings were:

Senior High Division,
Grace Chiaravalli, violin, 1st place,
Eliza Guernsey, violin, 2nd place,
Daniel Choo, violin, honorable mention,

Junior High division:
Kaivalya Kulkarni, cello, 1st place,
Eric Yun, violin, 2nd place,
Arianne Kim, cello, honorable mention

Elementary division:
Bhargava Kulkarni, cello, 1st place
Daniel Kwon, violin, 2nd place

PAS MEETING
HONORS CONCERT

APRIL 28

3:00 p.m.

Okemos Presbyterian Church
2258 Bennett Rd.

Notice the date. This is correct.

This is the concert to attend for sure. All the winners of the competitions will perform and receive their scholarships. The winners are listed in the preceding column. This is the chance to hear all of them and really enjoy what they have prepared for all of us.

The refreshments will be wonderful as always, provided by the families of the performers.

EDITOR'S CORNER

Spring is a busy time for Lansing Matinee Musicale Scholarship Committee. Finding the place, preparing all the information and getting it to the students, Who is eligible, thanks to PAS chairman, the student, scheduling, making sure everyone has all the information.... A big job. Our thanks go to all the people who ran the competitions and the students and their teachers.

Pat Smith

Lansing Matinee Musicale
Pat Smith
1911 Birchwood
Okemos, MI 48864