NEW HOME
FOR LMM
MEETINGS

ASCENSION LUTHERAN CHURCH

2780 HASLETT RD,
EAST LANSING
337-9703

October 4
1:00 p.m.

The place for meetings has been changed because Plymouth Congregational Church has changed location and the building is being used for other purposes.

HOW TO GET TO THE NEW PLACE

1. Where is it?
2. Where to park?
3. What's it going to look like?
4. Did anyone else find it?
5. Wow! Here it is!

From the west, If you know where Frandor is, you're halfway there. Go east on Saginaw until you come to Haslett Rd. Keep going east on Haslett Rd and the church will appear on your right within about a mile.

From the east, go to Park Lake Rd, go north to Haslett Rd, turn left, go about a short mile and there it is, on your left. If all this fails, call me. I won't be home either.

When you get there go in from the WEST SIDE since that takes you to the back of the church where it's easy to park and get into the church, and to the right place. Signs will help you.

Once you find the new place it will be worth it since the program will be super, just for our new home.

The Asbury Brass Quintet will be our openers for the year: Gerald Hough, Gary Gillespie, trumpet, Tracy Sonneborn, French horn, Bruce McCrae, trombone, and Henry Nelson, tuba.

They will play the "Ashokan Farewell", which we all know, "Shalom Aleichem", and "Zacatecas", a Mexican March.

Susan Greimer will join the group to sing two up-beat spirituals, "How Great Thou Art", a Swedish folk melody, and "Next Stop: Funksville" a fun jazz number.

And this isn't all. Don't go to eat yet. There will be even more. WOW !!!!

You remember Tracy Sonneborn. He will perform the 3rd movement of the Mozart Concerto in Bb for horn, he will play it on the French horn, and be accompanied by his wife, Barbara.

Then comes the alpine horn; you remember it from last year. It's super long and rests on the floor while he plays it. He will play some pieces on that horn also.

What a way to start the new year in a new building. Not only the program but plan to stay for the reception following the program. Find out where that is too. It is being planned for us by Marilyn Elena, chairman and the committee of Issie Scott, Pat Smith, Sandy Hassen, and Carol Broughton

NEW LOOK TO LMM

Did you notice the new heading for the newsletter? We have Gerardo Ascheri and Sunny Cirlin to thank for the new logo for LMM. They worked long and hard with a professional designer to create something distinctive for our club. You will notice it on the Yearbook, Newsletters, and all other LMM publications.

You will never guess how much work goes into the making of the yearbook. It's on its way. We just need to get all the t's crossed and I's dotted

STUDY CLUB
October 18
BURCHAM HILLS
2 p.m.

Come here and join in “Singing Our Favorite Show Tunes with our LMM Members” and do so with our members, Joan Wierzba, Timicka Rice-Wakefield, Irma Hough, and Brenda Crouch. The accompanists are Nola Deal and Mary Jean Kolk. Verna Holley will join with a piano solo.

What a nice variety of music for the residents. Joan encourages all the people of Burcham Hills to join in the songs they know. What a joyful afternoon for all. You too could join them.

PAS MEETING
SUNDAY, 3:00 p.m.
OCTOBER 8.
OKEMOS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

This hasn't changed, same place, same time

We are pleased to announce that we have a new PAS Coordinator, Dr. Hajin Kim. She is currently a piano faculty member at CMS of Michigan State University.

Born in Seoul, Korea, she began piano studies at the age of 4. She has continued studying piano, including a recent Dr of Musical Arts degree in piano performance from MSU. She is an active piano soloist in the Boston area as well. We are very pleased to have her join us in encouraging young people to make music.

The first program for PAS on Sunday, October 8 will feature Fangye Sun, assistant professor of violin at CMU. She will play “The Stream Flows By” by Bright Sheng for solo violin.

Along with the program she will have a master class with a young violinist...something new for our club. It will be interesting and informative.

This will be a good opportunity to hear and see all the new things that PAS has in store for you this year.

There are some new scholarships available for members. Look them up on the website for LMM. All the information will also be available at the first meeting.

EDITOR'S CORNER

I hope I find the new location too. Out the driveway and turn left, after that it's a guess. Maybe I'll follow my directions and see if it works.

This will be a new, new year for us. New location, new logo, new programs, and hopefully each of us will bring a friend so we have a big turnout for the new meeting place.

Many of our members have put a lot of work into not only finding the new place, but seeing to the moving of the pianos, tea things, papers to sign, etc.

It was a pile of leg work, head work, pencil work and everything work. We should be thanking Rochelle and the whole Board and committees for all their effort.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU
